

Biology.

Explores the interactions between living things and the environments in which they live.

ATAR - BOARD DEVELOPED - CATEGORY A

About the Course

The course provides the foundation knowledge and skills required to study biology after completing school and supports participation in a range of careers in biology and related interdisciplinary industries. It is a fundamental discipline that focuses on personal and public health and sustainability issues and promotes an appreciation for the diversity of life on the Earth and its habitats.

Find out more here.

What You Will Do

You will study a range of topics including Cells as the Basis of Life, Organisation of Living Things, Biological Diversity, Ecosystem Dynamics, and Infectious Disease. As well as the theoretical component of the course, practical activities and fieldwork are a core component of Biology.

Future Opportunities

Biology is suited to students wishing to study Biology, Botany, Medicine or Nursing, Veterinary or other Sciences at University, Agricultural, Environmental and Land and Animal Management, careers would also benefit from an understanding of Biology.